1. At the Executive Committee Meeting this morning:

b. The Alsop article in this morning's Washington Post was discussed, and according to the Director this article is very consistent indeed with recent National Intelligence Estimates and indicates that Alsop either had access to the papers or talked with someone who knew them very intimately. (I passed this on to Bob Bannerman.)

2. I asked [redacted] to ensure that they invited [redacted] to undergo a thorough physical examination, particularly in view of John's past criticism of our failure to do this.

3. I attended for a short while the debate in the House of Representatives on our early retirement legislation, which was passed by a voice vote.
